CONVICTIONS AND SENTENCING OF NAMED DEFENDANTS /
FORMER OFFICERS TORRIS MOORE, ERIC JONES, & ANTONIO MALONE, AND STATEMENT OF THEIR JOINT CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE; FEDERAL INFORMATION AND INDICTMENT OF NAMED DEFENDANTS

31.

[Verbatim Citations]

The named defendants in this action, the three former officers of the East Cleveland Police Department faced corruption charges in what federal prosecutors describe as a heavy-handed scheme to rip off suspected drug dealers by stealing money seized through illegal search warrants.

Each has pleaded guilty of the charges identified below and each is serving time as sentenced by the federal judge.

Sgt. Torris Moore and detectives Antonio Malone and Eric Jones were charged with conspiring to illegally take tens of thousands of dollars from four drug dealers between 2012 and 2014. The officers would sometimes split the money among themselves, others, or just keep it.

The officers, who all worked in the city's street crime unit, partly did this by applying for and receiving search warrants by filing false statements to judges, according to charging documents.

The investigation stretches back more than two years. The charging documents show that the FBI used recorded conversations with cooperating witnesses to obtain incriminating statements against the officers.

U.S. Attorney Steven Dettelbach, at the news conference, said that the officers "pillaged and plundered," rather than protected and served.

"They viewed the drug trade not as a public safety risk but as a chance to get rich for themselves and they lied to the court, their fellow officers and the citizens of East Cleveland in order to pull off their criminal conspiracy," Dettelbach said.

Documents suggest that Malone, 33, and Jones, 38, are cooperating. Both were charged in a criminal information, which usually means that a plea deal is in the works.

They are accused of conspiracy and a Hobbs Act conspiracy. They are not in custody.

Meanwhile, Moore, who supervised the drug unit and sent information to the county prosecutors for charging, was indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury and was arrested at her South Euclid home without incident Thursday morning. She faces two conspiracy charges, two counts of theft concerning programs receiving federal funds and making false statements to the FBI.

According to court filings, there were several instances in which the officers illegally took money. They include:

* In September 2012, a municipal court judge signed a search warrant presented by Jones that contained false information about a suspect identified in the indictment only as "J.W." The next day, Moore, Malone, Jones and a fourth officer searched the home on Sheldon Avenue, and seized $20,000 in cash and some drugs.

Later that day, Moore, Malone and Jones met at a park and divvied up part of the seized money, with each receiving between $2,000 and $3,000. They then put the remaining money in the department's evidence room, stating that they seized less than they actually had.

Malone was also charged in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court in November with four counts unauthorized use of computers. Prosecutors accused him of using police computers for personal use.

The United States Attorney for the Northern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, indicted the named defendants in the action at Case No. 1:15-CR-0373, set forth verbatim, [verbatim quotations below are single-spaced] [paragraphs are alphabetized]:

[Verbatim Citation of Ohio Revised Code]

Complainant Walter Derrico repeats and re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs above with the same force and effect as if set forth herein.

Under the following sections R.C. § 2903.06 of the Revised Code, the actions of named defendants constitute and defined by the Revised Code and established by the federal law as well:

- (R) “Terrorism” means any activity to which all of the following apply:

  - (3) The activity appears to be intended to do any of the following:
    - (a) Intimidate or coerce a civilian population;
    - (b) Influence the policy of any government by intimidation or coercion;

COUNT VIII – OHIO LAW CLAIMS: TREASON

84.

Complainant Walter Derrico repeats and re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs above with the same force and effect as if set forth herein.

Named Defendants and the East Cleveland Police Department’s joint actions and conspiracy as officers of these courts constitute treason under the laws of the Constitution and the United States as established by the United States Supreme Court.

The named defendants as public officers of the law and of the East Cleveland Police Department court, are city and state officials paid by the citizens of Ohio, to act impartially and lawfully whose actions are in clear violation of the United States and Ohio Constitution contrary to their sworn oaths of office such as to constitute treason.

Law enforcement officers on the not law, neither is a Police Department, Judge, or District Attorney. People v. Zajic, 88 Ill.App.3d 477, 410 N.E.2d 626 (1980).

Having committed and condoned the fraud and destruction of evidence proved, these named defendants including the named defendants and their Police Department have committed such fraud established by the United States Supreme Court such that: "Whenever any officer of the court commits fraud during a proceeding in the court, he/she is engaged in "fraud upon the court". In Bulloch v. United States, 763 F.2d 1115, 1121 (10th Cir. 1985), the court stated "Fraud upon the court is fraud which is directed to the judicial machinery itself and is not fraud between the parties or fraudulent documents, false statements or perjury. ..."

86.

What the named defendants have done is "Fraud upon the court" as has been defined by the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals to "embrace that species of fraud which does, or attempts to, defile the court itself, or is a fraud perpetrated by officers of the court so that the judicial machinery can not perform in the usual manner its impartial task of adjudging cases that are presented for adjudication." Kenner v. C.I.R., 387 F.3d 689 (1968); 7 Moore's Federal Practice, 2d ed., p. 512, ¶ 60.23. 10. Therefore, the decisions made by Judge Swartz is such as the 7th Circuit further stated "a decision produced by fraud upon the court is not in essence a decision at all, and never becomes final."

87.

From the decisions made by the named defendants to the personal benefits of themselves and unnamed others, it is also clear and well-settled law that any attempt to commit "fraud upon the court" vitiates the entire proceeding. The People of the State of Illinois v. Fred E. Sterling, 357 Ill. 354; 192 N.E. 229 (1934) ("The maxim that fraud vitiates every transaction into which it enters applies to judgments as well as to contracts and other transactions."); Allen F. Moore v. Stanley F. Sievers, 336 Ill. 316; 168 N.E. 259 (1929) ("The maxim that fraud vitiates every transaction into which it enters ..."); In re Village of Willowbrook, 37 Ill.App.2d 393 (1962) ("It is axiomatic that fraud vitiates everything."); Dunham v. Dunham, 57 Ill.App. 475 (1894), affirmed 162 Ill. 589 (1896); Skelly Oil Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 338 Ill.App. 79, 86 N.E.2d 875, 883-4 (1949); Thomas Stasel v. The American Home Security Corporation, 362 Ill. 350; 199 N.E. 798 (1935).

Under State and Federal law, when any officer of the court has committed "fraud upon the court", the orders and judgment of that court are void, of no legal force or effect, as has been done repeatedly resulting in the setting aside of approximately forty (40) convictions, set aside by the very same courts, including Mr. Walter Derrico's conviction set aside in February, 2017.

The Supreme Court has also held that if any officer who wars against the Constitution, or if he acts without jurisdiction, he has engaged in treason to the Constitution as the named defendants have done against Mr. Derrico and numbers others.

Courts have repeatedly ruled that public officers have no immunity for their criminal acts including fraud. Since both treason and the interference with interstate commerce are criminal acts, no public officer has immunity to engage in such acts under the 11th Amendment to the United States Constitution.

The named defendants the City and Its Police Department and the State of Ohio have no immunity for the consequences of their criminal acts including the consequences that effect the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of this or all other of these United States; those criminal acts are set forth below.
